MARRIAGE GUIDE.

DEING A PRIVATE INSTRUCTOR FOR married persons or those about to be marmed, both male and female, in everything concoming the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production and prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous fingravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents -Address, Dr. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Sprace

For the Journal. Meeting of the Executive Committee of the New Hanover Agricultural Society,

The committee met at D. T. Durham's. August 19, 1863. D. McMillan, Esq., in the chair, A. R. Black, acted as Secretary. A full meeting was in attendance.

The question of emigration first occupied the attention of the committee, and an interesting correspondence on this subject was read by Dr. Satchwell, Correspond-

It was resolved, "in connection with these proceedings, to publish the prominent facts elicited by said correspondence, together with the terms and method of procuring laborers from abroad, and to request the farmer'r clubs, members of the rers in accordance with said terms at as early a day as possible." The committee believe that laborers from abroad can be accomplishing this most desirable result.

The correspondence so far has related only to the introduction of Chinese Coolies as laborers, and German emigrants.— The latter is found to amount to over two hundred and fifty thousand annually at the port of New York city alone, and to be on the increase, say nothing of the importations to other places. This vast multitude spreads itself mainly towards the West, drawn in that direction principally by relatives and acquaintances who have preceded them, and impelled to a considerable degree by the misrepresentations of the German abolition press and abolition societies. These German laborers are in great demand, and much fear is felt lest they may be directed South, by the greater attractions of soil, climate, &c., and to prevent this, low and unscrupulous means are resorted to. A very intelligent agent for southern emigration remarks, "that everything depends upon a beginning .-Once started the thing will swell like an avalanche by its own process, each emialready accomplished partial results in Georgia, Florida and Virginia. We also note importations of emigrants into S. C., and a few into our own State with very satisfactory results.

Pains should be taken to provide for the emigrant, should he be a man of family, a comfortable dwelling house in as healthy a locality as the premises will afford. This point is insisted on by correspondents.— It is stated that in some instances arrangements might be made to work on shares, but a stipulated salary is preferred.

The demand for labor during the spring and summer months is very great, and wages, sometimes as high as thirty dollars emigrant; but during the fall and winter months wages decline, and contracts, it is believed, can be entered into at from ten to twelve dollars per month. Labor bonds, properly certified, must accompany all orders, and the fee of the agent is five dollars per contract securing the services of the emi grant. A part, or perhaps the whole of the cost of transportation from New York to North Carolina, may have to be advanced as a part of the emigrants wages. It is the opinion of the committee that good laborers can be obtained, on terms varying little if any from the above; and they again pose, to bestir themselves and ascertain the amount of labor wanted by the members of the society, and report if possible before the next meeting of the executive

In reference to the introduction of Coolies, they are said to be an excellent class of laborers, well adapted, no doubt, to the ment of importing fifty or one hundred. The expenses are stated to be forty-two dollars per head and rations from San Francisco. It was decided by the committee to publish a call for an agricultural convention of the surrounding counties, to be held in Wilmington, on Thursday 24th day of It is proposed to give a more extended notice of this convention, in a separate article to be prepared for the press. On motion of Maj. J. S. Hines, Dr. Satchwell, D. T. Durham and D. McMillan, were appointed to confer with the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Wilmington in reference to fair grounds and other preparations with a view to holding an agricultural fair at Wilmington, some time during the approaching autumn.

The constitution and by-laws of Rock fish club were presented and read before the committee.

Moved by Dr. Satchwell, "that we accept the same, as in accordance with the constitution and by laws of the county society; that the President notify the club by letter of this fact; that we cordially endorse the resolutions adopted by this club, and recommend them to the favorable notice of all the clubs in the county; and that we will offer for publication a copy of said resolutions at an early day, believing that the same will be productive of much good. ly prevailed.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the executive committee at the resifrom an intelligent and influential colored eence of D. McMillan, Esq., on Sloop Point, Topsail Sound, September proximo D. McMillan, Pres. 1 A. R. Black, Sec'y.
